

A Little Drama.

Anderson Intelligencer, 2nd.

A little drama was enacted here very quietly Saturday, the governor of the State acting as guardian for a woman who had "kidnapped" her own child. Nobody in Anderson knew of the matter except the reporter of The Intelligencer and one or two others. When the governor was asked if he were acting in the capacity of guardian for the young woman and her boy he stated that he was and gave the details of the matter, but requested no publication until he could arrange for the final disposition of the matter.

When Governor Blease came to Anderson last Friday night he was told that there was a lady in the sitting room who wished to see him. The governor did not recognize the lady or the bright little boy, seven years old, who was with her. She introduced herself as a daughter of a cousin, Gus Blease of Batesburg, and the governor rapidly recognized her and wanted to know what she was doing here. She explained that she had had to slip her child away from her former husband who had married again and that she feared that she was being followed by detectives. She said she was sure that one had tried to stop her in Atlanta.

The governor gave her assurance of his protection and had the hotel to give her a room opposite this on the third floor of the hotel, and he had the room watched by friends whenever he was called out himself.

S. A. Nettles Convicted.

Rock Hill, December 1.—At 11 o'clock to-night the jury in the South Carolina Methodist Conference reported its finding in the case against the Rev. S. A. Nettles, editor of the Southern Christian Advocate, published at Spartanburg. Mr. Nettles was found guilty and ordered suspended from the ministry for three months. Notice of appeal to the General Conference was noted and recorded.

At 10 o'clock the Rev. Walter I. Herbert presented a resolution requesting the Advocate publishing committee to elect the Rev. R. E. Stackhouse as editor of the paper, and the Rev. H. B. Browne as assistant. The Rev. Mr. Nettles sought the recognition of the chair to make a speech. Dr. J. W. Daniel, who was presiding, ruled that Mr. Nettles had no right to the floor. Dr. J. O. Wilson moved that the Conference give him the right. Dr. E. O. Watson moved that the Conference adjourn for fifteen minutes. His motion prevailed by a large majority, and Mr. Nettles did not get the floor.

Let It Come.

In an interesting article on "Network of Interurban Railways in South Carolina," under date of Columbia, November 28, we copy.

"Already Greenwood has been reached on one side and the talk is now of further extending the Piedmont and Northern Lines down this way. Without any question Columbia will sooner or later be reached because the next logical step in the chain in the southern direction from Greenwood is Newberry and intermediate towns and this cannot be delayed many years. From Newberry the next step is naturally Columbia and in this city would begin the chains of one gigantic link. It may seem a dream now but the possibilities once the up country is linked with Columbia are limited."

Good News.

From an Article in the Newspaper.

The largest interurban projects before South Carolina at this time are:

1. A trolley line between Columbia and Augusta.
2. An electric interurban connecting upcountry cities with Atlanta.

In addition to these there are a dozen other projects that eventually will materialize.

Maybe So.

Now comes the theory that indigestion is a cause of crime. Consequently, the plea for the next murder may be that the murderer was suffering from acute indigestion at the time. It is so much easier a plea, more plausible than a brainstorm, and more appealing to the average jury since indigestion is a common ill.

And the same exchange in the same issue says:

"Some men enjoy their indigestion judging by the way they brag about it."

Cotton and Comfort.

Fairfield News.

With cotton at 13 cents and over we constantly hear the complaint that the cost of living is high and very little can be expected beyond making ends meet. To one who listened to this complaint and knows that the speaker is—or thinks he is—sincere, it must be difficult to imagine how people, and in particular, farmers, managed to eke out an existence at all when cotton brought

BILE IS NATURE'S DISINFECTANT

Science now teaches that disease is due to an implanted germ of some kind. Not only infectious disease, but all other intestinal troubles—all these things are due to implanted germs. These germs once in the body, multiply by millions. Nature provides for their extermination, but sometimes is unequal to the task.

When nature begins to lose in this fight of extermination, you soon feel the excess toxins or poisons—your head aches—your tongue is coated—you are dizzy and you grow worse unless this multiplication of germs—that inhibit further germ growth. Release this Bile and relieve the trouble. How to release the bile.

The old time doctor who had no regard for the patient's comfort, would give a good big dose or two of Podphyllin (May Apple Root or as it is sometimes called, Mandrake). It would gripe, it would make them sick as a horse, but it brought the bile from the Liver every time.

Nowadays such strenuous remedies are tabooed. But nothing has ever replaced this old-time tried remedy. Science has been working for years to take the gripe and nausea out of Podophyllin and now in Podolax you have the old Bile-starting power of Podophyllin without the gripe and nausea.

We suggest that you go to your friend—the druggist—and discuss this Podophyllin—Podolax question. Get it straight from someone you know. We are confident of results. E. E. Sutherland Co., Paducah, Ky. Sold by P. E. Way, druggist.

barely six cents the pound. And indeed it would have been preposterously impossible had the farmer with six cents cotton lived the life of the 13 cents planter to-day. It is just here that the answer to the riddle may be found. In spite of protests against modern prices and cries of hard times people are to-day living more decently, more comfortably, nay more luxuriously than ever before. Small wonder then that it is difficult to make ends meet even now. Ends that would have met around economy and thrift and lapped generously over could hardly be expected to meet at all about modern extravagance and luxury. It is the old, old tale of living in excess of your income whether that income be a meagre salary of twenty-five dollars a month or the larger one of twenty-five hundred per year. While cotton has been gradually rising in price from six to thirteen cents the pound the cost of living high has risen from eight cents the pound to eighteen.

To the Optimist.

Fairfield News.
Here's to the optimist—the man who always sees the silver lining to every cloud that over shadows his horizon,—the man who so habitually looks upon the bright side of the things of this life that he forgets that they have a dark side at all—the man who hopes for and expects the best in all things and refusing to be discouraged by temporary reverses believes them but the forerunner of ultimate success—the man who plucks the flowers from among the briars and forgetting the thorn pricks sees only the beauty of his bouquet—the man who not only is pleasant, when life flows along like a song, but who also has a "smile when anything goes dead wrong"—the man who by his cheerful outlook brightens the gaze of others also—the man who, in short, is "the man worth while," and the man who makes life both livable and lovable.

"What do Summer Bros. Co. Sell?" asked a stranger this morning—"Hardware, groceries, meat, flour, grain, provisions, lime, cement, brick, shingles, roofings—oh! I'm out of breath, I just can't say any more now, I'll finish later."

Heed the warning; don't delay—Use a tested kidney remedy. Read testimony of Prosperity. John W. Boozer, R. F. D. No. 2, Prosperity, S. C., says: "I had kidney trouble for two years. I had pains in my back and twinges when stopping or lifting. My back ached at night and I was lame in the morning. I tired easily, was languid and nervous and had headaches and dizzy spells. My sight blurred. The kidney secretions contained sediment, were too frequent in passage and I had to get up often at night. I stayed in bed fifteen months. I tried doctors and other remedies, but quit them and began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Pelham & Son's Drug store. They greatly relieved me in every way." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo New York, sole agents for the United States.

CAN'T LOSE HAIR.

Twenty Years From Today a Bald-headed Man Will be an Unusual Sight.

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press.

He said: "If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within eight years."

When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years from now a bald head will be a rarity."

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it will cure dandruff, stop falling out hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back.

It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not sticky, or greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Fifty cents for a large bottle druggists everywhere. Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass. 11-11-4t.
